

How to become a model Christian: 15 Attributes of a Model Christian

This book describes 15 important qualities which one needs to have in order to be considered a model Christian. It also guides the reader through a series of user-friendly, practical exercises that will help them to become a model Christian. When these qualities are developed, they turn the believer into a beautiful rose that beautifies and perfumes his/her environment. The believer in Christ has to decide not so much what are the virtues and values that set them apart from other people of faith and religion. He or she has to decide whether they will practice the principles. This book summarizes the core Christian virtues and encourages the believer to see that even the least confident Christian can develop into a model worthy of Christ and of the admiration of others believers. The virtues which are described in this book are inner qualities that are born out of principles which the Bible teaches. However, they emphasize the teachings of Jesus and the applications of the apostle Paul. In this book, Christians are not let off the hook; and yet they are made to feel confident and supported by the way the author paves the way of hope. The virtues discussed in this book deal with personal and internal qualities. While doing this, it delves into issues of interpersonal relationships, business efforts, and family dynamics. A lot of suggestions are given for personal development.
