

Heidi: The Best of the Classics

Set in the beautiful and magical Swiss mountains, Heidi by Johanna Spyri is the captivating story of a little girl, who lives with her grandfather in a log cabin, surrounded by the idyllic charm of the mountains whose snowy peaks and gentle breeze appear to evoke the sweetest dreams. In those mountains, Heidi spends her days among kind animals and colorful wildflowers and marvels at the warm and fiery sunsets that announce the coming of the night. However, when Heidi is sent to the house of Herr Sesemann and his daughter, Clara, she finds herself enveloped by the noisy city-life and a restrained lifestyle. Now, with the help of Clara and her friends, she will endeavor to find her way back to her grandfather and to her lovely mountains.
