

Our Heavenly Father: A Course of Lectures on the Lords Prayer (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Our Heavenly Father: A Course of Lectures on the Lords PrayerOur Father.Two words, indeed, of praying we remember,And at midnights hour of harm,Our Father! looking upward in the chamber,We say softly for a charm.We know no other words, except Our Father!And we think that, in some pause of angels song,God may pluck them with the silence sweet to gather,And hold both within His right hand which is strong.Our Father! If He heard us He would surely,(For they call Him good and mild,)Answer, smiling down the steep world very purely,Come and rest with me, my child.- Mrs. Brownings Cry of the Children.Fatherhood! Brotherhood! The church on earth, and the church in heaven!These are the themes to which our attention is directed by the opening words of this wonderful prayer.The whole prayer bears the impress of divinity.There is a beauty, simplicity, and comprehensiveness in it which is more than human.As the works of men bear the impress of their author, and indicate his worth, so the works of God bear unmistakable marks of divine and celestial glory.About the PublisherForgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
