

The Reasonable Religion (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Reasonable Religion Thirteen thousand copies of these addresses were distributed over Central California by the courtesy of the Fresno Morning Republican, Requests for their publication in book form have come from various sources, including laymen engaged in active business, university students, and ministers of the gospel. Similar requests have come from members of the Los Angeles Methodist Preachers Meeting, before whom three of the Addresses were read as A Paper, in January, 1911. By way of illustration, a phrase of current slang expresses the attitude of many people to-day: Any old thing will do for a religious belief. Dowieism, Tingleyism, Eddyism, Spiritualism, or almost anything else seems good enough for multitudes of people. People are after the very best in everything except in Religion. When it comes to that, Any old thing will do. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
