

The Gift of More: Lessons of Faith and Love from a Life Cut Short

The call every mother fears: Mom, they say I have cancer. Story of a mother and son facing a fatal disease and learning to understand what it means to accept the love of God during a time of extreme emotion. Pamela Yates son Sean was just beginning a promising career in television production and had finally begun to gain a measure of self-confidence when he is given less than a year to live. His mother Pamela, wife of famed automotive writer Brock Yates, immediately jumps into action as they explore treatment options together. A compelling story that takes a hard look at a not-too-compassionate medical system and how God works through it all to reach those who are in need.
