

Undercover wildlife agent: The casebook of federal conservation officer Robert O. Halstead

Author James H. Phillips was a former Associated Press reporter and free-lance writer whose articles have appeared in Outdoor Life and other magazines. This book resulted from publishing Bob Halstead's role in smashing a large-scale waterfowl poaching ring near where he lived, inspiring him to work with Halstead on this fascinating casebook covering that investigation and many others in the wildlife agent's long career.
