

The Prayer-Meeting Assistant (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Prayer-Meeting Assistant To all who love to meet and together say, Our Father who art in Heaven one who has lived and labored longer than most of you, comes with words of friendly salutation. He desires earnestly and affectionately to address you on the subject of Prayer-Meetings. Prayer is as old as religion, and yet social meetings expressly for prayer, are of comparatively recent date, unless we go back to the early days of the Christian church. Many can remember when prayer-meetings, as the term is now understood, were unknown. But though so recent in their origin, they have by common consent come to be esteemed essential.
