

With God in Prayer (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from With God in Prayer This book is not designed by the author to be a manual of prayers. Its purpose is to suggest prayer-thoughts and to promote the prayerful spirit. Hence it would be contrary to the object of the book to use all the prayers under a given heading as a complete service, as e.g., those under the caption, In the Morning. A single paragraph will probably be sufficient at a time. Those into whose possession the little volume may come will find that they will soon be able to cull from it all that it is capable of giving, when it will be well to pass it on to a friend, or to destroy it. There are those who toil through the whole of their life of prayer leaning upon the prayers of others. They maintain they cannot compose prayers of their own.
